

Taverna Greek Grill Privacy Policy

Effective Date: March 30, 2012

Taverna Greek Grill Restaurants respect the privacy of every individual who visits our website. We do not sell or rent your personal information to third parties for marketing purposes. Please read this Privacy Policy carefully to learn more about the ways in which we use and protect your personal information. By visiting our website, you are accepting the practices described in this Privacy Policy.

If you visit our website:

In general, you can visit our website without telling us who you are or revealing any personally identifiable information about yourself. In some cases, we may collect information about you that is not personally identifiable. This information is collected using a "cookie" that enables us to learn which advertisements bring users to our website. (Cookies are small files placed on your hard drive that allow us to collect that information.) Taverna Greek Grill Restaurants, along with our ad management partner, uses this information to help us manage online advertising. None of the information collected by a cookie is personally identifiable, i.e., does not contain your name, address or e-mail address.

Taverna Greek Grill Restaurants also utilizes a third party to track and analyze usage and volume statistical information from our website customers in order to constantly improve the quality of our website. No data collected by a third party on behalf of Taverna Greek Grill Restaurants may be owned or used by such third party. Taverna Greek Grill Restaurants reserves the right to publish non-personally identifiable, summary information regarding its website customers for promotional purposes and as a representative audience for advertisers.

Taverna Greek Grills use a third party to serve ads across the Internet. The third party may also collect anonymous information about your visits to our web site. This is primarily accomplished through the use of technology devices, commonly referred to as web beacons or action tags, which are placed on various web pages within our web site that allows the third party to collect anonymous information. The third party may use information about your visits to this and other web sites in order to provide ads about goods and services of interest to you. We also partner with some other companies to provide specific services, such as email and newsletter fulfillment and personalization. When the user registers for these services, we will share names, or other contact information that is necessary for the third party to provide these services on our behalf. These parties are not allowed to use personally identifiable information except for the purpose of providing these services.

To the extent that any of the sites accessible through Taverna Greek Grill's website have different practices, these practices are/will be explained at that site. This includes the Facebook, Foursquare, Twitter, websites and any other websites including any other social media sites.

From time-to-time we may request information from users via surveys or contests located on our website.. Participation in these surveys or contests is completely voluntary and the user, therefore, has a choice whether or not to disclose this information. Information requested may include contact information (such as name and email address), and demographic information (such as zip code, age and specific interests). Contact information will be used to notify the winners and award prizes. Survey information will be used for purposes of monitoring or improving the use of this site. The information will only be used by Taverna Greek Grills.

If you choose to identify yourself:

If you voluntarily provide us with personally identifying information, such as your name, street address, email address, mobile phone number, birth date, and answer additional general questions; we will collect that information along with any other information you voluntarily provide.

It is our policy not to redistribute, sell, rent or in any way make available, your name, e-mail address or any other personally identifiable information to any third party.

When you participate in site features such as coupon offers, newsletters, sweepstakes, recipe sharing, etc., we may use the personally identifiable information you provide through those features in the following ways, unless stated otherwise:

- we may store and process that information to better understand your needs and how we can improve our products and services, and
- we may communicate with you via e-mail or postal mail based on your particular stated demographics..

Deletion of Personal Information

If at any time you do not wish to have your personal information collected, you may access your information and cancel your membership through the website. Upon cancellation, all of your personal information will be deleted from our system. Your email address will be placed in our Do Not Send file and we will make reasonable efforts not to send you any future information.

Children's Online Privacy Protection Act

Taverna Greek Grill Restaurants has no intention of collecting any personally identifiable information (name, address, telephone number, birth date, or e-mail address) from individuals under 13 years of age. If a child has provided us with personally identifiable information, a parent or guardian of that child should contact us at the e-mail address or phone number listed at the bottom of this Statement. If they would like this information deleted from our records, we will use reasonable efforts to delete the child's information from our existing files or upon request of the concerned, change the name to the parent or guardian.

Policy Changes

Taverna Greek Grill Restaurants may, at any time, amend the provisions in this Privacy Policy. Changes to this policy will be reflected by the "Effective Date" as displayed in the upper left hand corner of this policy.
